Dear Sir/Madam,

Dragon 100 Young Chinese Leaders Forum 2010

The Dragon Foundation is pleased to announce the Dragon 100 Young Chinese Leaders Forum 2010 Programme which will be held from 15 August to 22 August 2010 in Hong Kong & Shanghai. We are now inviting nominations of outstanding potential future Chinese leaders to take part.

The Dragon 100 annual programme was first launched in 2002 and brings together 100 youth leaders of Chinese origin from around the world every year. It is intended as a platform for sharing views, generating synergy and providing stimulus for improvement with innovation, enthusiasm and commitment. Young participants will discuss world issues, explore their Chinese origins and obtain a better understanding of the development in China, Chinese history and culture, thereby nourishing their sense of identity as “Descendants of the Dragon”.

This year's Forum comprises three days of activities in Hong Kong and a five-day study trip to Shanghai, China. During the programme, delegates will meet government officials, academics and professionals; visits to World Expo, major socio-economic and cultural development projects interest. They will attend seminars and discussions with academics, university students and young professionals.

We hope to invite participants from Hong Kong, Macau, Taiwan, the Mainland China and overseas who are between 18 and 35 years old and have already demonstrated leadership skills, an excellent academic record and a commitment to the community.
